

North West London Collaboration of Clinical Commissioning Groups

How we use your information to improve care

Whether you are visiting a GP, attending hospital, being seen in your community or at home, care professionals providing your care will be able to see essential information about you.

You have the choice not to share your information at any time.

personal details will be shared securely to help planning of resources for NWL

Visit our website: integration.healthiernorthwestlondon.nhs.uk or email: share4care@nhs.net

Talk to your health or care professional providing care to you.